"Noah's Park" - A Collection of Images Featuring Pets and Critters Doing Their Thing

Vandalia
At the Crossroads of America

We're looking for photographs of animals. Your pet -- maybe the squirrel that pilfers from your bird feeder -- or even the raccoon that lives at the edge of your woods. If you have an interesting photo of an animal being an animal, we'd love to see it!

Entry Deadline: January 1, 2019

The display period will be June 1, 2019 to May 15, 2020. Images will be displayed along the Treble Clef Trail at Vandalia Art Park, 256 E. Alkaline Springs Road. Selected work will be printed at 24" x 32" (portrait) or 32" x 20" (landscape) with a 2" black border on outdoor display material.

Entry Fee: There is no fee for entry.

Eligibility--Submissions must be made by:

- A. City of Vandalia resident
- B. A person employed within the City of Vandalia corporate limits.

Please submit:

- A. Submitter's name and address.
- B. Black and white OR color digital image in minimum of 1 megapixel file – 3 to 4 megapixels preferred. Either portrait or landscape format is acceptable.
- C. Image Title
- D. Signed Call to Artist Sheet

Send photo submission, along with this form by email to justin@jspiveyphotography.com. The entry form may also be submitted at the Vandalia Municipal Building, 333 James E. Bohanan Memorial Drive.

Entrants will be advised of their status by April 1, 2019. Submitter gives permission for image use by the Vandalia Cultural Arts Program and City of Vandalia in various publications and media, both in print, video and online as necessary without liability or compensation.

I agree to the conditions above:
