

Council Action

In an effort to increase awareness and understanding, this publication was created to detail and explain the actions of the Vandalia City Council. We hope this promotes a better understanding of the role Council plays in keeping Vandalia a great place to live, work and play.

Council took the following actions at the Monday, December 21 meeting:

Approved Resolution 20-R-78 authorizing the final plat of 46.6650-acres of land for the Redwood Development and dedicate and additional 0.1395 acres as public right-of-way with the following conditions:

1. The accompanied Final PUD Plan for the proposed Redwood development is approved.
2. Lot 3 is dedicated as public right-of-way once the public road is built.
3. The conditions of approval for the preliminary plat are satisfied.
4. Lots 1 & 2 shall only be permitted the uses of four-family and multi-family dwelling.
5. Montgomery County Environmental Services approves of the Final Plat as it relates to providing public utilities and services.
